CHOKMA!

The Chickasaw Nation is driven by a mission to enhance the overall quality of life of the Chickasaw people. To best meet the evolving needs of citizens around the world, we continually work to expand, improve and increase vital programs and services.

Revenue generated from tribal business and successful economic endeavors enable us to invest in the future of our tribe, by supporting the development of new resources and increased opportunities designed to positively impact Chickasaws and their families.

Please take a moment to review the programs and services outlined in this year's guide. This guide is also available for download at Chickasaw.net/ServiceDirectory. For more information, please visit Chickasaw.net or call (866) 466-1481.

CHICKASAW SUMMER ARTS ACADEMY

PHONE: (580) 272-5520 • WEB: Chickasaw.net/ArtsAcademy
Send mail to: 201 N. Broadway Ave. • Ada, OK 74820

Aspiring young artists are immersed in an exploration of various artistic fields, career preparatory programming and student-oriented skill development. Students can learn about contemporary and traditional Chickasaw and Southeastern First American art in a variety of mediums. The academy inspires exploration of the artistic process in writing, performing and visual arts.

An arts gala and showcase conclude the academy, giving students the opportunity to display their work and perform with their new and strengthened skills. The arts gala is a public reception to highlight the visual arts disciplines. The showcase is a public performing arts event incorporating all the performing arts disciplines into a final production.

The next academy will take place July 2026.

The STARTING ARTS ROTATION (STAR) (AGES 8-10) is a two-week day academy facilitated by professional artists. Students begin training in the arts with instruction tailored for their age and skill levels.

INTERMEDIATE (AGES 11-13) is a two-week day academy. This level begins training youth in their choice of artistic tracks: mass communications, performing arts or visual arts. Participants receive instruction tailored for their age and skill levels facilitated by professional artists.

CHICKASAW SUMMER ARTS ACADEMY MAJORS (AGES 14-18) is an immersive art instruction experience during a two-week overnight residential academy. Participants are housed in the East Central University dorms and have access to campus amenities, giving them a taste of college life as well. These students gain experience in their choice of mediums including drawing, painting, contemporary pottery, metalsmithing, creative writing, culinary arts, performance theater, dance, vocal music, digital arts, photography, printmaking, video production, fashion design and more.

WEB: ChickasawNationHealth.net/StrongFood
229 W. Seabrook Road • Ada, OK 74820

Impa' Kilimpi' (Strong Food) encompasses Chickasaw Nation programs focused on nutrition education.

GET FRESH! teaches healthy meal preparation through entertaining and interactive cooking demonstrations and videos led by nutrition educators. Included in these demonstrations are new recipes and skills meant to boost a family's everyday eating experiences. Classes are free and open to the public. GetFreshCooking.com offers fun and fresh recipes, videos and other resources to help users incorporate healthy meals into their daily lives.

BODY ADVENTURE is a Chickasaw culture-infused program based on the children's book, "Brave Little Anoli." It teaches fourth and fifth grade students how to maintain a healthy lifestyle through food and physical activity choices. This program is offered in select schools within the Chickasaw Nation. A larger-than-life walkthrough experience of 10 organs teaches students about nutrition, digestion and the impact of a healthy lifestyle on the body with animated videos.

EAGLE ADVENTURE provides engaging and interactive lessons to children with hands-on, health-focused learning and encouragement to try new foods. This program is offered in select schools educating first through third grade students within the Chickasaw Nation.

CHAMPION NUTRITION is a sports nutrition curriculum developed by a dietitian to enhance athletic performance and overall health. This program consists of a series of videos provided in a school or team setting.

COMMUNITY SHARING GARDENS demonstrate food sovereignty by teaching an assortment of gardening methods, including the use of recycled materials for planting, composting and indoor gardening. Produce harvested from these gardens is used in Get Fresh! cooking shows or distributed through Chickasaw Nation nutrition programs.
