Participant Consent

In consideration of being permitted to participate in the Chickasaw Archaeological Survey Program (CASPR), I, on behalf of myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, hereby state that:

1. I believe that I am physically and mentally capable of participating in the CASPR, including carrying light and heavy items and participating in hot or cold weather. I knowingly and freely assume any risks, both known and unknown, of illness, injury, death, damage and/or loss to self, others and/or property that might be associated with or result from my participation in the CASPR, even if arising from the negligence of the Chickasaw Nation or others.
2. I release and forever discharge the Chickasaw Nation, its employees, officers, directors, shareholders, affiliates, agents, representatives, successors and assigns of and from all liability, claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses, actions and causes of action in respect to death, injury, loss or damage to myself or property however caused, arising during my participation in the CASPR, whether before, during or after my attendance and notwithstanding that any claim may have been contributed to or occasioned by the negligence of the Chickasaw Nation, its employees, officers, directors, shareholders, affiliates, agents, representatives, successors and assigns.
3. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the Chickasaw Nation, its employees, officers, directors, shareholders, affiliates, agents, representatives, successors and assigns from and against any liability incurred by the Chickasaw Nation or damage to any property thereof arising as a result of or in any way connected to my participation in the CASPR.
4. I grant permission to the Chickasaw Nation, its agents or employees to photograph, record, film and videotape me for future promotion of the heritage preservation division programs and/or any Chickasaw Nation publications. I will have no right of approval, no claim to any compensation and no claim (including without limitation, claims based upon invasion of privacy, defamation or right of publicity) arising out of any uses, alteration, distortions or illusionary effect or use in any composite form. I hereby agree to release the Chickasaw Nation from any and all liability arising from or in connection with taking, use, publication or dissemination of such materials now or in the future.
5. I understand that the Chickasaw Nation is a sovereign entity and that the Chickasaw Nation does not waive any sovereign rights and immunities by offering and hosting this event.
6. In case of an accident or need of emergency medical attention, I give permission to the CASPR staff to take me to a doctor and/or emergency facility of the Chickasaw Nation's choice. I understand that all expenses for treatment provided to me will be my responsibility.

Please list all medication(s) that you are currently taking (dosage and schedule) and list any allergies:

This release, waiver of liability and indemnification are intended to be as broad and inclusive as permitted by the applicable laws of the Chickasaw Nation.

Participant Code of Conduct

One of the primary goals of the Chickasaw Archaeological Survey Program (CASPR) is to provide a safe environment conducive to learning. Participants are expected to adhere to the Participant Code of Conduct while attending the meetings and events. Participants' behavior is expected to be cooperative with all the instructors as well as the CASPR staff since all participants are under the supervision of the adults helping with this event.

The use of tobacco, alcohol or drugs in any form will not be allowed. Use of foul or abusive language, excessive horseplay, theft, misuse or abuse of public or private property or disrespect of other participants or the CASPR staff will not be tolerated. Violators are subject to being sent home. If violations of the Participant Code of Conduct are deemed by the CASPR staff to be less serious, the punishment will result in a reprimand and further violations may result in participants being sent home.

CASPR will provide meals and transportation for the purpose of the program. If a participant voluntarily leaves the program or is sent home due to violation of the Participant Code of Conduct prior to the program's completion, the participant will be responsible for their own meals, transportation and other costs to return home.

Program participants will not use cellular or other technological devices during program activities. This includes but is not limited to calling, messaging and engaging with social media, gaming and streaming applications. Photographing and videoing program peers is not permitted. Usage will be limited to breaks, lunch and emergency, otherwise specified by program staff.

Realizing these guidelines are not "all-inclusive," the Chickasaw Nation reserves the right to make adjustments to the Participant Code of Conduct.

The reason for this agreement is to ensure conduct and behavior that will result in every participant receiving the full benefit of enjoyment and educational experiences from this event. It is not intended to place undue restrictions upon any individual.

I have read, understand and agree to follow the CASPR Participant Code of Conduct.
