

THE CHICKASAW NATION

ROAD TO WORK PROGRAM

ROAD TO WORK PROGRAM:

- Offers safe, reliable transportation to and from work
- Reduces transportation costs for Chickasaw Nation employees
- Provides Chickasaw citizens more opportunities to find employment

Bill Anoatubby, Governor
The Chickasaw Nation

Department of Community Services
Social Services Division
Transportation Services

Chickasaw.net/RoadToWork

(580) 310-6453
Toll Free: (800) 492-2115

TRANSPORT FARES:

- Chickasaw citizens: $1 one way (Must provide citizenship card)
- All other participants: $2 one way

All riders must complete a client information form. For more information, or a form, visit Chickasaw.net/RoadToWork.

Call to learn about services in your area:
(580) 310-6453 • Toll Free: (800) 492-2115

TRANSPORTATION RULES:

- Anyone under the influence of alcohol or drugs will not be allowed on the vehicles
- No smoking allowed
- No vaping allowed
- Harassment of driver and/or passengers will not be tolerated
- No weapons are allowed

Failure to abide by these rules will result in termination of transportation services.

MISSION:

The mission of the road to work program is to provide transportation to all First Americans within the Chickasaw Nation and to the general public in a comfortable, safe and easy-to-access fashion.

CONTACT:

(580) 310-6453 or (800) 492-2115
Road.Work@Chickasaw.net
Chickasaw.net/RoadToWork