PARTICIPANT CODE OF CONDUCT

Please return this information to:
Chickasaw Explorers Program
Attn: Heritage Preservation
1020 North Mississippi Avenue
Ada, OK 74820

A primary goal of the Chickasaw Explorers Program is to provide a safe environment conducive to learning. Participants are expected to adhere to the Participant Code of Conduct while attending the program. Participants are expected to cooperate with all the instructors and staff members.

The use of tobacco, alcohol or drugs in any form will not be allowed. Use of foul or abusive language, excessive horseplay, theft, misuse or abuse of public or private property or disrespect of other participants or staff members will not be tolerated. Violators are subject to reprimand or being sent home.

The Chickasaw Explorers Program will provide meals and transportation from Ada, Oklahoma to the site location. If a participant voluntarily leaves the program prior to its completion, the participant will be responsible for their own meals and transportation home.

Young adult technology policy:

Chickasaw Explorers Program participants will not use cellular and other technological devices during program activities. This includes but is not limited to calling, messaging or engaging with social media, gaming or streaming applications. Photographing and videoing of program peers is not permitted. Usage will be limited to breaks, lunch, emergencies or times otherwise specified by the Chickasaw Explorers Program staff.

These guidelines are not all-inclusive, and the Chickasaw Nation reserves the right to make adjustments to the participant code of conduct.

The program aims to ensure conduct and behavior that allows every participant the opportunity to receive the full benefit of enjoyment and educational experiences from the program. It is not intended to place undue restrictions upon any individual.

I have read and understand the Chickasaw Explorers Program participant code of conduct.
