

SCHOOL

Participants have a structured education experience, managing classes, work and study time.

WORK

Participants are assigned on-the-job training sites located within the Chickasaw Nation treaty territory related to their field of study. These training sites provide supervisor instruction and invaluable work experience, so students are better prepared to enter the workforce after graduation.

COMPENSATION

Participants will receive up to a 40 hour stipend for school and work per week.

CHICKASAW NATION SCHOOL-TO-WORK PROGRAM

CHOKMA!

The Chickasaw Nation School-to-Work Program serves Chickasaw citizens furthering their education.

Program participants can receive compensation while enrolled in a full-time college or vocational program and on-the-job training in specified degree fields. The school-to-work program supports personal and professional growth within its program participants while building a diverse Chickasaw Nation workforce.

Sincerely,

Bill Anoatubby
