

SCHOOL

Participants have a structured education experience, managing classes, work and study time. Students work or attend classes between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on weekdays.

WORK

Participants are assigned on-the-job training sites related to their field of study. These training sites provide supervisor instruction and invaluable work experience, so students are better prepared to enter the workforce after graduation.

COMPENSATION

Participants will receive a stipend starting at $15 per hour. Whether they are at school or work, students will be paid for 40 hours per week.

CHICKASAW NATION SCHOOL-TO-WORK PROGRAM

CHOKMA!

The Chickasaw Nation School-to-Work Program serves Chickasaw citizens furthering their education. Program participants can receive compensation while enrolled in a full-time college or vocational program and on-the-job training in specified degree fields. The school-to-work program supports personal and professional growth within its program participants while building a diverse Chickasaw Nation workforce.

Sincerely,

Bill Anoatubby
