The 2027 Dynamic Women of the Chickasaw Nation Conference Call for Presenters

The Legacy Continues: Celebrating 20 Years of Dynamic Women

The Chickasaw Nation Literary Arts Division announces its call for presenters for the 2027 Dynamic Women of the Chickasaw Nation Conference (DWCNC). The DWCNC is May 27-28, 2027, at the WinStar Convention Center in Thackerville, Oklahoma.

The purpose of the DWCNC is to recognize, celebrate and honor the dynamic women of the Chickasaw Nation and to inspire, empower and educate women, especially First American women. We invite individuals to submit presentation proposals that focus on First American and/or women's issues to fulfill the DWCNC purpose within the theme, The Legacy Continues: Celebrating 20 Years of Dynamic Women.

We are looking for engaging individuals who have experience presenting and are knowledgeable in their professional field or area of expertise. Presentations should be appropriate for all ages and tie into the DWCNC theme, The Legacy Continues: Celebrating 20 Years of Dynamic Women. General sessions are 45 minutes with approximately 350-400 attendees, and breakout sessions are 55 minutes with approximately 20-50 attendees.

Proposals must include:

- DWCNC presenter information sheet
- Biography of the presenter(s) in the third person and between 100-150 words
- Resume or curriculum vitae
- A summary of the presentation in the outline format and a list of visual aids that will be used during the presentation, such as a PowerPoint
- A description of the presentation in 50 words for the DWCNC program.
- Completed W-9 form (required yearly)
- Professional headshot - digital photographs may be emailed to CulturalEnhancement@Chickasaw.net

Once selected, presenters will be provided with or reimbursed for travel and lodging depending on the distance of travel and mode of transportation. Presenters will be responsible for providing any supplies or handouts needed for their presentations.

Chickasaw Nation employees presenting during their working hours:

- Must have approval from their line of support; and
- Will not be compensated for speaking.
